

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Drug Induced Cutaneous Vasculitis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Drug Induced Cutaneous Vasculitis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C112204.

A skin hypersensitivity reaction due to exposure to a pharmacologic substance that is characterized by raised purpuric lesions, red macules, hemorrhagic blisters and ulcerations.