

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Refractory Cytopenia of Childhood

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Refractory Cytopenia of Childhood. NCI Thesaurus. Code C82596.

The most common subtype of the myelodysplastic syndromes affecting children. It is characterized by persistent cytopenia with less than 5% blasts in the bone marrow and less than 2% blasts in the peripheral blood.