The theme of this article is quite interesting, even though many people have done research on this in various countries. This research should provide information on the main problems in managing MSMEs in Africa compared to other continents. Use survey results as a comparison regarding MSMEs.

The objects used are from countries in Africa, even though each country in Africa has different policies for managing MSMEs or has its own regulations. This should be explained as a weakness of this research. Apart from that, each African country has different problems in managing MSMEs
