

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Flow Microscopy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Flow Microscopy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C112284.

A method of measuring the number of cells in a sample by placing the cells in a fluid and passing them, in a stream, through a special light microscope that can record and analyze images of the cells (presence of foreign particles, cell counts, protein aggregates, morphology information).