

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Total Anomalous Pulmonary Venous Return

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Total Anomalous Pulmonary Venous Return. NCI Thesaurus. Code C98585.

A rare congenital heart disorder in which all four pulmonary veins are not connected to the left atrium and drain into the systemic veins or the right atrium instead. Infants present with cyanosis, lethargy, tachypnea, respiratory infections, and poor growth.