

Review of: "Population estimates of biomarkers of exposure to carbon monoxide, nicotine, and NNK in smokers and non-smokers"

José Antonio García del Castillo Rodríguez<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Universidad Miguel Hernández de Elche

Potential competing interests: The author(s) declared that no potential competing interests exist.

This is a very relevant research on different parameters of measurement of the components of cigarette smoke. The methodology used is adequate, showing a relative scarcity of controlled studies over a longitudinal period of twelve years. It is interesting to note that we still lack reliable information on population levels for biomarkers of exposure. It would be necessary to go deeper into this level of study in order to make progress on this fundamental topic.