

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Medial Collateral Ligament of the Knee

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Medial Collateral Ligament of the Knee. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33064.

The flat, broad band of fibrous tissue located posteriorly on the inner side of the knee, extending from the medial epicondyle of the femur to the medial margin and surface of the tibia to prevent the knee from moving medially.