Transplant Registry Unified Management Program

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Transplant Registry Unified Management Program. NCI Thesaurus. Code C158154.

A Japanese centralized, computer-based software suite developed to manage hematopoietic stem cell transplant outcome data offline in transplant centers. The system emphasizes convenience to institutes, safety of patient information, quality of data management, and outcomes of transplantations.