

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Major Histocompatibility Complex Gene

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Major Histocompatibility Complex Gene. NCI Thesaurus. Code C16812.

A group of linked loci, collectively termed H-2 complex in the mouse and HLA complex in humans, that codes for cell-surface histocompatibility antigens and is the principal determinant of tissue type and transplant compatibility.