

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Consolidated Health Informatics

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Consolidated Health Informatics. NCI Thesaurus. Code C156647.

A US federal government initiative, established in 2001, to create and adopt health information interoperability standards for implementation across government agencies in order to enable the exchange of electronic health information.