

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Chaperone Protein Inhibition

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Chaperone Protein Inhibition. NCI Thesaurus. Code C41571.

Chaperone Protein Inhibition involves interference with, or restraint of, the activities of diverse cellular proteins that noncovalently bind to nascent or unfolded polypeptides and mediate assembly/disassembly, stability, and transmembrane translocation of other polypeptides or complexes, but which are not components of those structures.