

Review of: "A Review of Transformation and Digital Literacy for the Sustainable Development in the Greater Mekong Subregion – Working Paper"

Tanpat Kraiwanit<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Rangsit University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article under consideration is intriguing, focusing on a pertinent subject matter. The summary offers a comprehensive perspective on the primary themes and objectives, elucidating the prospective value of this research.

To enhance the scholarly rigor of this work, it is imperative to expound upon the findings and discernible trends derived from the specific research studies. The incorporation of well-referenced sources to buttress the assertions and conclusions advanced within the article is paramount in substantiating its scholarly merit.

Moreover, the inclusion of pertinent quotations serves to fortify the premises posited and the inferences drawn in the narrative. The judicious use of direct quotations from authoritative sources can lend a heightened degree of credibility to the content presented.

However, a notable deficiency in the article lies in the absence of practical and applicable recommendations, which could guide individuals in their day-to-day decision-making processes. The omission of such actionable insights may hinder the article's utility to those seeking to apply its findings in practical contexts.