

Review of: "Process for Implementing a Quality Management System (QMS) Adapted to Architectural Practices in Tunisia, in the Case of ISO 9001"

Hasim Altan<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Prince Mohammad Bin Fahd University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This is an interesting article, exploring the significance of implementing quality management systems (QMS) in architectural practices, with a focus on the ISO 9001 standard and other alternative methodologies. Here, the benefits and challenges of adopting ISO 9001 have been discussed, while insights into setting up a QMS tailored to the unique needs of architectural firms in Tunisia have been provided. The article is an excellent read and a good resource for people working in the related field.