Abstract

The abstract of this study doesn't provide clear information on the problem, aim, methodology used, the results, and contribution or study significance.

In the abstract, there is a statement that says "It is noted that though the development of SDI in Zimbabwe has been moving at slow pace....."

This statement sounds either like the problem or challenges in SDI system in Zimbabwe, but do they relate with objective of the study? what is objective? make objective clear so that a reader would directly know what is expecting to find in the study.

Again, the abstract doesn't contain information about the study findings.
