

Review of: "Prevalence of Buruli Ulcer Among Residents in Jasikan Municipality: A Cross-Sectional Study"

Evans Ehouman

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1- Add location map of the study

2- In the 2020 population census, about 49.2% of the population were males and the rest were females. The majority of the population live in rural areas, constituting about 72.4%. The Municipality has a sex ratio of 91.9. How the sex ratio is computed ?

3- Where does the information on the study site were obtained, from interviewed? You should indicated the sources; For exemple for climatic data.

4- What is the procedure of Buruli confirmation, PCR targeting Kr or IS2404.

5- Where the data anonymised and respect the GDPR Data Protection Act, 2012

6-Kelsey et al. (1996) it is cited in the text but is not in the references section.

7- The population size is not given in the text. It should in order to ensure the reproducibility.

8- It's said that significant of test was at 5%, however, no test is mentioned and no test is donne to compare frequencies among groups.