

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Mature Mediastinal Teratoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Mature Mediastinal Teratoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7104.

An extragonadal mature teratoma that arises from the mediastinum. It is usually encapsulated and characterized by the presence of unilocular or multilocular cysts. The cysts can contain clear fluid, mucoid material, sebaceous debris, fat, hair, cartilage, and rarely teeth or bone.