

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Delirium

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Delirium. NCI Thesaurus. Code C2981.

A usually reversible condition characterized by the acute and sudden development of confusion, illusions, movement changes, inattentiveness, agitation, and hallucinations. Causes include drug abuse, poisoning, infectious processes, and fluid and electrolyte imbalance.