

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Pancreatic Adenosquamous Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Pancreatic Adenosquamous Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C5721.

A carcinoma that arises from the pancreas showing both ductal and squamous differentiation. The squamous component should represent at least 30% of the malignant cellular infiltrate. The prognosis is usually worse than that of ductal adenocarcinoma.