

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Congenital Pulmonary Lymphangiectasia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Congenital Pulmonary Lymphangiectasia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C99034.

A congenital abnormality in the lungs characterized by the presence of dilated lymphatic vessels in the interlobar, perivascular, and peribronchial areas of the lungs. Signs and symptoms appear at birth and include tachypnea, cyanosis, and respiratory distress.