

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Invasive Ductal Breast Carcinoma with Predominant Intraductal Component

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Invasive Ductal Breast Carcinoma with Predominant Intraductal Component. NCI Thesaurus. Code C9132.

A breast carcinoma characterized by the presence of a predominant ductal carcinoma in situ component and a minor component of invasive carcinoma.