

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Wiskott-Aldrich Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Wiskott-Aldrich Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C3448.

A rare, X-linked immunodeficiency syndrome characterized by eczema, thrombocytopenia, and recurrent pyogenic infection. It is seen exclusively in young boys. Typically, IgM levels are low and IgA and IgE levels are elevated. Lymphoreticular malignancies are common.