

Review of: "Mediumship for Pets: A Pilot Study With a Triple-Blind Protocol"

Angélica S. Vasconcellos¹

¹ Pontifícia Universidade Católica de Minas Gerais, Brazil

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The manuscript reports an interesting study on the possibility of communication between people and their deceased animals. Although the topic is understudied and deserves investigation, the manuscript misses important information (methods, theoretical basis), adequate analysis (statistical tests), and discussion of the results based on the scientific literature. Please find attached a file with my comments, point-by-point in the manuscript.