

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Maculopapular cutaneous mastocytosis

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Maculopapular cutaneous mastocytosis. ORPHA:79457

Maculopapular cutaneous mastocytosis (MCM) is a form of cutaneous mastocytosis (CM; see this term) characterized by the presence of multiple hyperpigmented macules, papules or nodules associated with abnormal accumulation of mast cells in the skin.