

Review of: "Directed acyclic graphs to explore causality in Epidemiological study designs, part I: an introduction to DAGs"

Robert West¹

¹ University College London, University of London

Potential competing interests: The author(s) declared that no potential competing interests exist.

This is a very useful introduction and the reference to SWIGs was new to me. I would like to see in subsequent articles how this type of model is extended to represent mutually interacting variables and feedback loops. It would also be extremely helpful to start to link the key terms to ontological definitions that can be put in Qeios.