

Open Peer Review on Qeios

CD15 Antigen

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. CD15 Antigen. NCI Thesaurus. Code C96898.

A carbohydrate molecule found on the surface of neutrophils, eosinophils and monocytes. It is involved in neutrophil chemotaxis and phagocytosis. Expression of this antigen is associated with Hodgkin disease, chronic lymphocytic leukemia, and acute lymphoblastic leukemia.