

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Serum Interleukin-2 Receptor Subunit Alpha Measurement

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Serum Interleukin-2 Receptor Subunit Alpha Measurement. NCI Thesaurus. Code C96484.

An immunoassay that is used to determine the amount of soluble interleukin-2 receptor subunit alpha in a patient serum sample. High levels of the soluble form of the receptor can be indicative of hematological malignancies and other neoplastic disorders.

Qeios ID: NVPVFK · https://doi.org/10.32388/NVPVFK