Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The title is not informative; it needs revision.
2. There are other accurate methods to determine breeding objectives and economic weights for the traits of interest, e.g., bioeconomic models and others. Please use the appropriate methods.
3. The manuscript needs extensive editing by a fluent user of the English language.
4. It is unfair to cite unpublished data in your manuscript.
5. Figure 1. Put the lagged below the graph, and the graph is not easy to understand.
6. Use scientific words throughout our manuscript.
