Review of: Female Youth Unemployment in the GCC Countries

The topic is very intriguing and well presented in the article; however, there are a few minor comments to be addressed.

I advise including tables 1, 2, 3, and 4 in the appendices.

Table 4 and the results should be placed in descriptive statistics right before the empirical results.

What statistical software (tool) was used for the analysis?

Application of the findings, policy and practical implication and future prospects should be used to broaden the conclusion.
