

Open Peer Review on Qeios

American College of Cardiology/American Heart Association Lesion Complexity Score B

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. American College of Cardiology/American Heart Association Lesion Complexity Score B. NCI Thesaurus. Code C100038.

Tubular (10-20 mm length) or eccentric or moderate tortuosity of proximal segment or moderately angulated segment, 45-90 degrees or irregular contour or moderate to heavy calcification or ostial in location or bifurcation lesions requiring double guidewires or some thrombus present or total occlusion less than 3 months old. (ACC)