

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Half Maximal Inhibitory Concentration Subject Result Measurement

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Half Maximal Inhibitory Concentration Subject Result Measurement. NCI Thesaurus. Code C116247.

A measurement of titer of a viral organism or biological/biochemical reaction that has been exposed to a concentration of a specific drug expected to produce 50% inhibition of the standard growth of the viral organism, or of a reaction.

Qeios ID: OD9Q23 · https://doi.org/10.32388/OD9Q23