This research is necessary for Ben Tre province. However, the author should re-consider the request for papers such as format, structure,... Please see some contributed ideas below:

Abstract: The effect of climate change on the three communes of Ben Tre should be shown. This part should show the specific results of the data, not the general.

Figure 1: The name should be changed to the English language, not Vietnamese; the name of the figure should be changed to Binh Dai, Ba Tri, Thanh Phu (not Ben Tre).

In research methods: Please show how many households are interviewed in each commune. How do you select the households for interviewing?

Research results and discussion à should be changed to Results and Discussions

In results and discussions: The authors should add general information about the households, such as age, gender, and economic,... Because the age difference will show the awareness difference.

More references should be added.
