

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Mixed Somatotroph and Lactotroph Adenoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Mixed Somatotroph and Lactotroph Adenoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C45927.

An infrequent pituitary gland adenoma composed of an admixture of acidophilic and chromophobic cells that produce growth hormone and prolactin respectively. Unlike mammosomatotroph adenomas, these two hormones are not localized in the same cell by immunohistochemistry.