

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Nuclear Translocation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Nuclear Translocation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C28506.

Nuclear Translocation is a subcellular process in which activated cytoplasmic proteins are transported into the cell nucleus as part of a signal transduction pathway to modify cell function (typically gene expression) in response to a signaling event or condition.