

Review of: "[Commentary] The WHO strategies to reduce tobacco-related deaths are insufficient"

Karl Fagerström¹

¹ Fagerstrom Consulting

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The WHO strategies to reduce tobacco-related deaths are insufficient by Lars Ramström.

It was a pleasure to read this Commentary. The paper discusses a very important topic. The paper is short and succinct but nevertheless contains all arguments and is very easy to read. It is balanced in discussing the two opposing sides arguments. I have nothing to suggest in terms of adding or deleting material but just a congratulation to the author for an excellent commentary.