

Review of: "Sectoral GDP and Tax Revenue: a Panel Data Analysis"

Umra Waris

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Respected Qeios team, Thank you for providing me with the opportunity to review this article. I am grateful for the chance. The manuscript titled 'Sectoral GDP and Tax Revenue: a Panel Data Analysis' is an interesting contribution to this journal. -Visualizing variables in the introduction section leads to a better understanding of the critical variables in the related study area. -Since the study is directly related to SDGs, discuss how your study variables align with them. -Mention Equation numbers in the text, for example, Equation 1 -There is a need to include citations with their findings in the discussion section. -Write the study's limitations and future research recommendations in the conclusion section