

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Malaria

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Malaria. ORPHA:673

Malaria is a preventable life-threatening parasitic disease caused by Plasmodium (P.) parasites that are transmitted by Anophles mosquito bites to humans and is typically clinically characterized by attacks of fever, headache, chills and vomiting.