

Open Peer Review on Qeios

HELLP Syndrome

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. HELLP Syndrome. NCI Thesaurus. Code C84750.

Severe preeclampsia associated with any of the following findings: thrombocytopenia (platelets less than 100,000 per microliter), impaired liver function (twice normal elevation of hepatic transaminases; severe, persistent right upper quadrant or epigastric pain), progressive renal insufficiency (serum creatinine greater than 1.1 mg/dL or doubling of baseline in the absence of other renal disease), pulmonary edema, or new-onset cerebral or visual disturbances.