

Review of: "Quality improvement and research differences: A guide for DNP and PhD faculty"

Vindya Wijesinghe

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Congratulations on comprehensive review on QIP

I believe the quality improvement projects need to be encouraged further in Australian healthcare systems.

Many thanks to authors for identifying the need.

For future articles , i would like to add following comments

Some sentences are too long and have complicated structure. Further, language need some improvement.

Conclusion need to be strong with recommendations which enhance the quality of the article.

I liked the using of tables for comparison

Good luck