

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Malondialdehyde-Lysine

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Malondialdehyde-Lysine. NCI Thesaurus. Code C120014.

A lysine modification found in proteins resulting from a malondialdehyde attachment to the protein lysine residue. This advanced glycation end product (AGE) is elevated in certain diseases and is associated with aging.