

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Solitary Circumscribed Neuroma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Solitary Circumscribed Neuroma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C121681.

A benign peripheral nerve sheath tumor characterized by the presence of Schwann cells, axons, and perineurial fibroblasts. It usually arises from the skin of the head and neck or the oral mucosa. It presents as a solitary and painless nodular mass.