

Review of: "Why Corruption in Nigeria? Experts' Accounts on the Occurrences and Persistence"

Juan Gallegos¹

¹ Universidad Católica de La Santísima Concepción

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The article has been well developed, allowing for an adequate analysis of its results. However, further development of the introduction, as well as the contribution of this work, would be appreciated. Finally, we appreciate updating the references and thus improving the proposed methodology, as well as the results of this manuscript.

Finally, I thank you for the invitation to participate in this review.

Juan Gallegos Mardones