FAS-Associated Death Domain Protein

National Cancer Institute

Source

FAS-associated death domain protein (208 aa, ~23 kDa) is encoded by the human FADD gene. This protein is involved in the positive regulation of caspase-dependent apoptosis.