

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Tumor Necrosis Factor Receptor Binding

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Tumor Necrosis Factor Receptor Binding. NCI Thesaurus. Code C40550.

A process that involves the binding of any member of the tumor necrosis factor family to a cognate receptor. These interactions are involved in regulation of signaling cascades that mediate inflammation, immune cell functions and organogenesis.