

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Salivary Gland Lymphoepithelial Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Salivary Gland Lymphoepithelial Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C35736.

A rare carcinoma that arises from the salivary glands, most often the parotid gland. It is characterized by the presence of an undifferentiated carcinomatous component associated with a prominent reactive lymphoplasmacytic infiltrate.