

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Microsporum gypseum

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Microsporum gypseum. NCI Thesaurus. Code C127736.

A species of soil-associated keratinophilic fungi in the phylum Ascomycota with a world-wide distribution. This species is known for causing diseases on human skin, particularly associated with rural and agricultural workers.