Review of: "Generalized N-metric Spaces"

Gopi Prasad

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

In this article the notion of generalized N-metric spaces is introduced which is motivated by the concept of path integrals in Quantum physics. The concept is new and important for future research direction. In my opinion there is lack of non-trivial examples and topology of the metric spaces. Also usefulness of such spaces should be highlighted in the introduction section.