

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Ependymoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Ependymoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C3017.

A WHO grade II, slow growing tumor of children and young adults, usually located intraventricularly. It is the most common ependymal neoplasm. It often causes clinical symptoms by blocking cerebrospinal fluid pathways. Key histological features include perivascular pseudorosettes and ependymal rosettes. (WHO)