

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Medial Rectus Muscle

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Medial Rectus Muscle. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33068.

One of the extraocular muscles arising from a common tendinous ring in the posterior part of the orbit with insertion on the medial surface of the sclera, which is innervated by the inferior division of CN III, and functions to adduct the eye.