

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Gastroduodenal Artery

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Gastroduodenal Artery. NCI Thesaurus. Code C150362.

A small artery located in the abdomen that arises from the common, left, or right hepatic artery, and supplies blood to the pylorus of the stomach, the proximal duodenum, and the head of the pancreas.