Thank you for your insights on the significant topic of learning gaps in primary school children, especially as we near the 2030 deadline for the Sustainable Development Goal of quality education for all. However, it's important to note that the study's methodology, which relies on data from the 1990s and the author's personal observations as indicated in the article's title and abstract, could benefit from enhancement. Strengthening the research methodology would substantially improve the article's contribution to this critical field.
